

Carson Teenagers In Quest For King and Queen Titles

Six boys and five girls have entered the Second Annual Chamber of Commerce Teen contest and carnival, general chairman Herb Blank has reported.

The chairman said he expected at least half a dozen more to file this week before the extended deadline, April 23.

Chet Smith, chairman of the contest, said several prospective entrants had called for information and he predicted that the girls would outnumber the boys before the deadline is reached.

Last year, 14 girls competed for the Queen role. Some members of the executive committee reluctantly decided to include boys for a "king" role this year, fearing that a sufficient number of entrants would be secured, and the response from king aspirants has been highly gratifying, Smith said.

More Awards Set

Henry Blythe, chairman of the prize committee, said additional awards to be given contestants have been secured and will be ready for distribution as soon as contestants become eligible.

These awards are in addition to the $100 wardrobe to be presented each of the winners.

Kenneth Parker, one of the early filers, qualified for a fountain pen and pencil set at last Friday's report meeting, being the first to poll 100 votes in his quest for the "King" role.

Newest candidates are Carol Stevens, 15, of 1523 Lakme Ave., Wilmington; Pat Hamilton, 15, 20913 Margaret St., Carson; Joyce Brown, 16, 433 E. 228th Pl., Carson and Peggy Hopper, 16, of 322 E. 228th St., Carson, who join Althea Stedham in the quest for the "Queen" title.

New candidates for the "King" honors are Mike Kall, 16, 23206 Dolores St., Carson and Bob Weiknecht, 16, 23206 Dolores St., Carson. Others already listed are Parker, Ed Murray, Bob Hull and Alan Osburn.

Top prize in this year's carnival-contest will be a 1954 automobile purchased from a local dealer. Candidates have an opportunity to win cameras, pen and pencil sets, sweaters, bathing suits and other valuables in addition to the wardrobe.

Arrangements have been completed for Babcock's Show for the three day carnival which will climax the annual Youth Benefit.

Church Youth To Stage Play

"But This I Know," an Easter drama in three acts, will be presented tonight at 7:30 o'clock by the youth of the Foursquare Church, 1207 El Prado.

In the cast are Robert Walker, Virgil Kasali, Thomas Whiteley, Clarence Johnson, Donna Von Steeg, David Murphy, Ann Lowen, Evelyn Sullivan and Margorie Murphy.

The play tells the story of a blinded Army chaplain who helps other hospitalized veterans to take their place in the world again by renewing their faith in the Resurrection.

At the 10:45 a.m. Easter service, the Rev. James P. Lowen, pastor, will speak on the subject "Resurrection Reveries."

King Continues Fight To Make LA International Air Terminus

Congressman Cecil R. King recently expressed hope of a decision by the State Department to include the Los Angeles International Airport in the international air flight pattern, following a meeting with the Civil Aeronautics Board and representatives of American Air Carriers.

The meeting was called to reconsider the merits of the Scandinavian Government's request for Los Angeles as a terminal point for its proposed Trans Polar Airlines Service. The CAB

Finch Would Deny Federal Pension For Alger Hiss

Robert H. Finch, 17th District Congressional candidate, issued a statement this week favoring legislation to deny Alger Hiss a federal pension when he comes out of prison.

"I am in full accord with the current proposal to deny benefits, under Civil Service or other federal retirement systems, to persons convicted of felonies involving improper use of their authority, power, influence or privileges as officer or employee of the United States," Finch stated.

"If no action is taken," the Inglewood attorney continued, "the people of the United States will be put in a position of paying a pension to a man they have had put in the penitentiary because of his acts while in public office."

"The legislation should not be a punitive act specifically against Alger Hiss, but a general act which will apply to any similar case, and thus permanently protect the taxpayers out of whose pockets these pensions come," Finch said.
